

BRAMALL CONSTRUCTION

Resources, Roles, Responsibilities and Authority

- Financial Director
(Steve Welburn 01709 766000 steve.welburn@bramall.com)

- Director responsible for overall environmental management.
- Chief Planner
(Ian Stacey
01709 766000 ian.stacey@bramall.com)

- Manage the Bramall Construction Environmental Management System through accreditation and overall implementation
- Environmental Management Representative

- Ensure that the Bramall Construction Management System is implemented and maintained in accordance within the requirements of the International Standard ISO14001:2004. Report to the Board of Directors on the performance of the Bramall Construction Environmental Management System for review, including recommendations for improvement.
- Environmental Management Assistant (Coleen Morgan 01709 766000
coleen.morgan@bramall.com)

- Providing support to the Environmental Management Representative.
- Pre-Construction Manager

- Responsible for ensuring that significant aspects are considered at pre-contract design stage.
- Supply Chain Manager

- Responsible for ensuring environmental aspects are considered when purchasing products/materials.
- Contracts / Site Managers

- Responsible for implementation of the Bramall Construction Environmental Management System on Site.
- Operatives & SC's

- Responsible for ensuring that their activities do not lead to any environmental impacts on site. Responsible for informing site management of any environmental aspects that are not adequately controlled on site.
- Office Employees

- Responsible for ensuring that their activities do not lead to any environmental impacts in the office. Responsible for informing management of any environmental aspects that are not adequately controlled within the office.